Lincoln and the War Within (1992)

7 p.m., Thursday, May 22, 2008 | Missouri Auditorium, Truman Library

This 1992 PBS Home Video follows the path of Abraham Lincoln from his election to the momentous decision to reinforce Fort Sumter and the first shots of the Civil War.

MPAA Rating: NR; 75 minutes.

Glory (1989)

7 p.m., Thursday, May 29, 2008 | Missouri Auditorium, Truman Library

This Academy Award-winning Civil War drama, tells the story of Colonel Robert G. Shaw (Matthew Broderick), an officer in the Federal Army who volunteered to lead the first company of black soldiers. Shaw was forced to deal with the prejudices of both the enemy (who had orders to kill commanding officers of blacks), and of his own fellow officers.

MPAA Rating: R; 122 minutes.

The General (1927)

7 p.m., Thursday, June 5, 2008 | Missouri Auditorium, Truman Library

An imaginative masterpiece of dead-pan Buster Keaton comedy, generally regarded as one of the greatest of all silent comedies (and Keaton's own favorite).

MPAA Rating: NR; 105 minutes.

Shenandoah (1965)

7 p.m., Thursday, June 12, 2008 | Missouri Auditorium, Truman Library

Charlie Anderson (Jimmy Stewart) is a Shenandoah, Virginia farmer who finds himself in the middle of the Civil War. At first convinced this is not "his" war, Anderson is forced to respond when his youngest boy is taken prisoner by the North.

MPAA Rating: NR; 106 minutes.

Ride with the Devil (1999)

7 p.m., Thursday, June 19, 2008 | Missouri Auditorium, Truman Library

Starring Tobey Maguire and Jewel, and directed by Ang Lee, Ride with the Devil deftly depicts ordinary lives ambushed by history. Set and filmed along the Missouri-Kansas border, the familiar scenes of battlefields and plantation houses are absent in this telling. Instead, we see the war as an "improvised and largely blundering but very bloody feud among neighbors in the border state of Missouri."

MPAA Rating: R; 138 minutes.
