THIS IS THE SIXTH OF A SERIES OF REPORTS ON COMMUNISTS AND FRIENDS OF COMINTERN FOR WALLACE

GLOBE HEARST TAYLOR

United States Senator Glen H. Taylor has a more impressive record of affiliation with Communist front organizations than is generally known. (His middle name is really Hearst.)

For approximately two years Senator Taylor has been one of the "darlings" of the Communist Party and its newspaper, the Daily Worker, in scores of issues of the Daily Worker during this period, Senator Taylor has been accorded favorable publicity such as is given only to reliable friends of the Communist Party.
A few samples of this favorable publicity in the Daily Worker are included in the tabulation and the exhibits which accompany this memorandum.

Senator Taylor has been actively affiliated with several of the organizations which were listed as subversive by Attorney General Tom Clark in the list which he promulgated on December 4, 1947. These organizations are the Civil Rights Congress, the International Workers Order, the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, and the Win-the-Peace Conference.

The complete text of Senator Taylor's speech before the opening session of the Win-the-Peace Conference on April 5, 1946, will be found as the last exhibit in this dossier. In this speech, Senator Taylor said: "I don't think you are here to disclaim American responsibility for the deterioration of Big Three unity which has brought crisis to the Security Council and shadows the whole world with the threat of a new and inconceivably horrible war. You will not seek to shrink our own country's responsibility for this crisis...nor will you join in the rising hue and cry against our Russian allies, holding the enigmatic Stalin responsible for everything that goes wrong in the world."
Such statements have been characteristic of Senator Taylor's pronouncements during the past two years. They are, of course, in strictest accord with the line of the Communist Party.
In the Daily Worker of November 27, 1947, Senator Taylor was quoted with respect to Hollywood Communists as follows:

"This denial of our civil liberties is part of a deliberate plan invented and first tried out by Adolph Hitler." Naturally such a statement gladdens the heart of the comrades.

Senator Taylor's pro-Soviet slant on foreign policy is illustrated in his statement which appeared in the Daily Worker of November 17, 1947, which said: "If the Russians had done to us some of the things we have done to them, we'd have been in a war long ago."

All of the organizations listed in the tabulation which follows have been cited as subversive Communist fronts by various government agencies.

Like Henry A. Wallace, Senator Taylor has taken his own country as the chief target of his attack and at the same time, he has acquitted the Soviet Union of all responsibility for the present world crisis.
