Dear Dave:

This is to advise you of the members of the Committee who will be able to meet with the President at noon next Tuesday, June 9. Mr. Donahue has recently resigned; and Mr. Luckman might not be able to attend. We will not know definitely about his attendance until Monday, the 8th. The other members will attend as follows, naming them alphabetically:

Charles Fahy, Chairman
Lester B. Granger
Dwight H. Babcock
John H. Sangster
William E. Stevenson

With personal regards, believe me,

Yours sincerely,

P.S. Would it be all right to bring Mrs. [Name] on Sunday evening?

Dear Dave:

Yesterday I left at your office a typewritten tentative draft of our Committee's thinking. I now enclose two copies of a revision just made of the draft left at your office yesterday. These are not formal Committee papers but indicate the definite trend of the thinking of the Committee at this time. The context of the draft left with you yesterday has been made available to the services through the Personnel Policy Board of which Mr. Thomas Reed is chairman.

I am sorry I missed you yesterday but enjoyed very much a visit with Mr. Nash. I hope you will give one of the enclosed copies to him.

Yours sincerely,

Enclosures.
Honorable David K. Niles
