MEMO FOR HONORABLE DON DAWSON:

Charles Fahey spoke to me about filling these vacancies, and I am inclined to agree with him that it is just as well if they are not replaced. The fact is that the Committee has very little to do nowadays except wait for an eruption.

MEMORANDUM FOR DAVID KILE:

The Honorable A. J. Bums has submitted his resignation from the Committee on Equal Treatment and Opportunity in the Federal Service. Charles Taylor is not disposed to recommend the appointment of a new chairman at this time due to the fact that the committee is now working in harmony after considerable articulation difficulty, and to appoint a new member would perhaps upset things. It least he would have to go through the same process of articulation as the other Committee members did, which would take some time.

May I have your view?
