My dear Mr. President:

In connection with the President's Committee on Equality of Treatment and Opportunity in the Armed Services, I would like to suggest two names for membership on the Committee.

For Chairman, I would like to urge you to appoint Charles H. Wilson, President of General Electric Company. As Chairman of the President's Committee on Civil Rights, Mr. Wilson did an outstanding job. His work on that Committee has given him the unbounded confidence of all minority groups for his fairness and integrity. His appointment as Chairman will give an assurance to the minority groups that is absolutely necessary.

I have discussed this matter with Howard McGrath and I think he has somewhat different ideas. You will doubtless want to have his views. I have thought over what Howard has said, but I still would strongly urge Mr. Wilson's appointment.

I do not know how many Negroes you plan to include in the membership. I would, however, urge that you appoint John H. Sengstacke, Publisher and Editor of the Chicago Defender. Mr. Sengstacke is a man of highest qualifications and integrity. He is well and favorably known to Secretary Perretta. Mr. Sengstacke has come out in an editorial in the Chicago Defender, urging your re-election in unqualified terms. Congressman William Dawson also urges Sengstacke's appointment. I think it will mean a lot to the Negro press if one of their members is recognized in this way.

Cordially and sincerely,

Owen P. Davis

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. DAVISON:

You requested further information concerning five names of persons recommended by Secretary Forrestal. Attached are two memoranda, containing the requested information. The memorandum concerning Mr. Clark Howell and Mr. Ralph McGill contains information taken from Who's Who in America. The memorandum containing information concerning Mr. Granger, Mr. Hope, and Mr. Sangamboke was dictated by Mr. James Evans, Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army.

Mary Lee
Special Assistant to the Secretary
Clark Howell's biography, from Who's Who in America, reads as follows:

Ralph McGill's biography, from Who's Who in America, reads as follows:

LESTER GRANGER

Lester Granger is Executive Secretary of the National Urban League. His office is in New York. He served earlier as a college teacher concerned with vocational and occupational aspects of Negro life in the nation. From this position, he took a similar position with the Urban League and now, for probably ten years, has been Executive Secretary and the active head of this organization.

During the war he served as Special Consultant to the Secretary of the Navy. For the service which he rendered during the integration and full utilization of Negro personnel, leading to abolition of racial differentials in the Navy, Mr.
Granger was awarded the Medal of Merit by the President. He holds numerous other citations from civic organizations.

DR. EDWARD S. HOPE

Dr. Hope is presently Professor of Civil Engineering at Howard University in Washington, D.C. He is the son of the late Dr. John Hope, for many years the senior Negro educational leader in the nation and the founder of the Greater Atlanta University.

During the war Dr. Hope attained the highest rank, lieutenant commander, ever held by a Negro in the United States Navy. He saw service in the Pacific and in view of his educational background was, toward the close of the war, chief ed-cational officer in an armed forces university organization based in Honolulu. Dr. Hope holds degrees from Morehouse College in Atlanta, MIT, and Columbia.

MR. JOHN H. SEGRESTAD

Mr. Segrestad is the nephew of the late Robert S.
Abbott, founder of the Chicago Defender. While not in direct line of inheritance, he was chosen by his late uncle to carry on the work of the Chicago Defender in its fight for human rights.
Mr. B asphalt, now editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, did receive a full heritate of his uncle's ability and spirit and is the most prominent of the younger publishers in the field of American Negro journalism. Through his journal, his influence and that of his late uncle are widely felt among Negroes and others in many parts of the world.
