

DRAFT

TO THE COMMITTEE ON EQUALITY OF TREATMENT
AND OPPORTUNITY IN THE ARMED SERVICES:

Considering it essential that there be maintained in the armed services of the United States the highest standards of democracy, I have declared it to be the policy of the President that there shall be equality of treatment and opportunity for all persons in the armed services without regard to race, color, religion or national origin.

In Executive Order No. 9981, dated July 26, 1948, I directed that this policy should be put into effect as rapidly as possible. By this same executive order, I created the President's Committee on Equality of Treatment and Opportunity in the Armed Services. I am happy to welcome you, each of you, to the tasks and opportunities which now become yours.

Our total national economy demands the most effective utilization of the services of every citizen. Likewise it is the privilege and responsibility of every citizen to make the maximum possible contribution to our national strength. The concept of democracy that our nation represents to the peoples of the world demands that there be equality of treatment and opportunity in the armed services as well as in all other phases of our national life.

It occurs to me that under the guidance of your chairman, the Committee will wish to make a comprehensive survey of the past and present status and service of the Negro citizen in the armed services.

You will find that the services have themselves been developing plans for improving the utilization of all minorities.

It is my profound desire that the work of this Committee shall yield results which will be not simply a report, but a set of operable plans, a blueprint, for constructive action.

The national security requires that you make your contribution, consistent with the fundamental rights of all men, toward the full development of the strength of our country.
