Today the free people of the world are seeking to us for the moral leadership that will units them in a common purpose.
The two nations of the world are coming on our strength to maintain that as they mobilize their energies to resist Communist imperialism.

We have accepted these responsibilities gladly and freely.
We shall meet them with the sure knowledge that as our own people in the solution of our own problems in accordance with the will of the our national leaders is the belief that all men are created equal.

Judge Fahey and the members of his Committee have been unsupplying in the time and energy they have devoted to their decision.
Every American who believes sincerely in the purpose of the Committe, the Declaration of Independence seems then a duty of patriotism.
