Defense Secretary Louis Johnson

Dear Col. Johnson:

May I trespass upon your kindness by asking you to please investigate the National Guard set-up for Negro boys out here in Kansas and Missouri. During the War, Missouri did not have a single Negro State Guard Company. Kansas had only one Negro Company. When the War ended, this Negro Company was disbanded, as were all State Guard organizations, but when the new National Guard was organized, the Negro boys were left out.

The Negro citizens would like for you to demand a full-scale report by the Army on its operation of the National Guard out here in Kansas and Missouri as to President Truman's order banning military discrimination.

Hoping to hear from you soon, I am

Sincerely yours,

/s/ John M. Earley
