Dear Sir: -

In the name of all those who are signing the peace petitions all over the country, I beg of you to reconsider the sending of arms, munitions, or any other aid to Korea. The war they are fighting is a civil war, not an international one. They are fighting for unity in a country where there has been none.

The world has not yet rebuilt its ruins of but a few short 5 years past. Must we spend more time in rebuilding ruins that should never have been made ruins.

Let us talk before we fight. Let us negotiate before we use knuckles.

Respectfully yours,

Carolyn M. Aquino
