President Harry S. Truman
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sirs:

In the name of all those who are signing the peace petitions all over the country, I beg of you to reconsider this matter of arms, munitions, or any other kind of help. We urge they are fighting in a civil war, not an international one. They are fighting for unity in a country where there has been war.

The world has not yet rebuilt the whole of her for about 5 years past. Must we spend more time to rebuilding those that should never have been made raids.

Let us talk before we fight. Let us negotiate before we use knuckles.

Respectfully yours,

Carolyn M. Agnes
