President Harry S. Truman
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sirs:

In the name of all those who are signing the peace petitions all over the country, I beg of you to consider this matter of armament, or any other kind of armament. In our time they are fighting in a civil war, not an international war. They are fighting for unity in a country where there is none.

The world has not yet rebuilt the peace of but a few short 5 years past. Most of us spend more time in rebuilding what we have never had than we do in fighting what we have never had.

Let us talk before we fight. Let us make peace before we make mistakes.

Respectfully yours,

Carolyn A. Agnew
