President Harry S. Truman
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sirs —

In the name of all those who are signing the peace petitions all over the country, I beg of you to reconsider this question of armament, munitions, or any other thing which is not necessary, I am sure they are fighting for a civil war and not an international one. They are fighting for unity in a country where there has been war.

The world has not yet reached the stage of that is the war of a short 5 years past. Most of us spend more time in rebuilding ruins that should never have been made ruins.

Let us talk before we fight. Let us come to before we are embroiled.

Respectfully yours,

Carolyn de Aguirre
