President Harry S. Truman
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sirs:

In the name of all those who are signing the peace petitions all over the country, I beg of you to reconsider this question of arms, munitions, or any other item in which the war they are fighting is a civil war, not an international one. They are fighting for unity in a country where there has been war.

The world has not yet rebuilt the ruins of war in the short 2 years past. Must we spend more time in rebuilding ruins that should never have been made ruins.

Let us talk before we fight. Let us reconcile before we use knives.

Respectfully yours,

Carolyn M. Agnew
