President Harry S. Truman
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sirs:

In the name of all those who are signing the peace petitions all over the country. I beg of you to reconsider this question of arms, munitions, or any other kind of means. The war they are fighting is a civil war, not an international one. They are fighting for unity in a country where there has been war.

The world has not yet realized the value of that a few short 3 years past. Must we spend more time to rebuilding roads that should never have been made roads.

Let us talk before we fight. Let us mediate before we act violently.

Respectfully yours,
