President Harry S. Truman
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sirs:

In the name of all those who are signing the peace petitions all over the country, I beg of you to reconsider this question of arm, mantles, or any other as it seems to me that they are fighting in a civil war, not an international one. They are fighting for unity in a country where there has been war.

The world has not yet rebuilt the rules of just a few short 5 years past. Must we spend more time to rebuilding rules that should never have been made rules.

Let us talk before we fight. Let us consolidate before we are indecisive.

Respectfully yours,
Carolyne D. Agnew
