My Dear Mr. President:

It is my pleasant desire to assure you again of the profound gratitude which we, the Korean people, owe to you and the United States. We are grateful to you with reason. Your world policy dealing with communism was a helping hand to a drowning nation in this hour of travail. As long as the United States lives up to the spirit of the "Truman Doctrine" the Koreans can and will, I assure you, manage to keep their country safe for democracy.

We are grateful to you for the aid and assistance freely given to us through ECA. We are delighted to welcome Mr. Hoffman on his short visit with us. The materials supplied by America will save the lives of millions of our people. Without the aid of the United States, our citizens who have come in crossing the 38th Parallel would face freezing and starvation.

We are grateful to you for sending Ambassador Roosevelt whose presence here has gradually brought a feeling of cooperation and harmony between the Americans and Koreans in Seoul. He and General Delahanty have been so helpful that we all feel the change of atmosphere in the relationship between our two countries. We shall be very happy to have these two men represent the United States through these difficult times.

Mr. Hoffman has courteously complied with my request to present to Your Excellency this brief personal note from me.

Very sincerely yours,

His Excellency
Harry S. Truman
President of the United States of America
Washington, D. C.
