

His Majesty's Ambassador presents his compliments to the Secretary of State, and with reference to this Embassy's Aide Memoire of June 3 and to subsequent conversations between the State Department and this Embassy, has the honour, on instructions from His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to express the hope that the United States Government will agree that further discussions concerning the prosecution of war criminals should be held in London. In view of the urgency of this matter, His Majesty's Government hope that it will be convenient for the United States Government to send representatives to London to enable discussions to begin on or about June 20.

His Majesty's Government are addressing similar invitations to the Soviet Government and to the French Government.

BRITISH EMBASSY,

WASHINGTON, D.C.
