Robert Jackson
Office of U.S. Chief of Counsel
Nurnberg, Germany

Thanks very much for your invitation. Doubt very much whether I can make it, but if I can I shall notify you. My best wishes in this most important enterprise.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT.

How about it? In order to forestall Allen, I want to tell you in advance that I did not arrange this. It came as a surprise.

I would suggest that Allen go, but he might be mistaken for Goering.

FROM: OFFICE OF U.S. CHIEF OF COUNSEL, NURNBERG, GERMANY.

TO : JUDGE SAM ROSENMAN, WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON.

NR : 1548

(131225Z)

Because of your personal interest and support in the negotiations and plans that are about to bring to trial top ranking war criminals, it seems fitting to extend personal invitation to you to be present at the opening of their trial in Nurnberg now scheduled for ten hundred hours, 20 November. If date is postponed you will be advised. Sincerely hope you can arrange to be present.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT LIBRARY

The attached is self-explanatory, except for my memorandum for President Truman.
The "Allen" referred to is George E. Allen.
