

Berlin, 24 January 1938

The Plenipotentiary for the Four Year Plan
Field Marshal Goering

To the Reich Minister of the Interior in Berlin.

The emigration from Germany of Jews is to be advanced by all means.

A Reich Central Office for Jewish emigration is established within the Reich Ministry of the Interior from the representatives of the agencies concerned. The Reich Central Office has the mission to uniformly within the whole territory of the Reich:

- 1) take all measures for the preparation of an increased emigration of the Jews, among other things to create a Jewish organization which is qualified to prepare all steps to make available and utilize the internal and foreign funds, and to determine, in collaboration with the Reich Bureau for Emigrant Matters, countries suitable for emigration.
- 2) direct the emigration; and to favor among other things, particularly, the emigration of the poorer Jews.
- 3) expedite emigration in individual cases by central coordinated processing of the necessary applications, State certificates and vouchers needed by the individual emigrant and by the controlling of the course of the emigration.

The Chief of the Security Police is in charge of the Reich Central Office. He appoints the manager and regulates the management of the Reich Central Office.

I will be currently informed of the work of the Reich Central Office. My decision must be requested before measures of fundamental importance are taken.

In addition to the other agencies concerned, Ambassador Wiscnlohr as Delegate for Official International Negotiations and Ministerial Director Wohltat as Delegate for the Negotiations on the Dublos Plan, are to be members of the executive committee.

Signed: Goering.
